INSIDE

Innovations in medical surgery and therapy - this is what we are committed to.

Leading medical technology companies around the world rely on the 3D navigation technologies from NDI - the market leader for more than 20 years. Our competence as an innovative high-tech company supports the implementation of modern, digital solutions in medical fields of application and is a central component of our success.

People work for NDI at four locations around the world. The cultural diversity in our successful company and the requirements of our global customers ensure a motivating work environment. The knowledge, enthusiasm and experience of our employees are essential for our success. We know each other by name - including our colleagues in Canada, the USA and Hong Kong. We trust, respect and are honest with each other.

TASKS

Self-organized and effective work at eye level - that is agile mindset for us. For our Research & Development department we are looking for you as Agile Coach for new impulses in our company:

- Moderation and coaching are main points of your work with us: you exemplify agile values, moderate our dailies and reviews and coach in our retros
- You recognize obstacles or blockages and help our team to organize itself
- The path to innovation almost always leads through "trial & error" - mistakes let us learn. You promote this view of a positive error culture in our team
- And last but not least, it is important to be proud of what we have achieved together - this is what you present and communicate together with our team

PROFILE

- You have already worked as an Agile Coach for several years and are therefore an old hand in the Agile working methods
- Helpful, but not necessary, is a university degree in technical, economic, social science or psychological field
- The agile way of working is the most sensible way for you to lead projects to success.
- You can quickly and confidently adapt to different conversation partners and situations and convince with your communication skills.
- You have a good command of German and English and are therefore optimally prepared for our international environment and the discussions with your new colleagues.
